Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

TRIPOLI, October 2.

IN Conſequence of the Peace which Commodore Keppel has renewed here, between the King of Great Britain and this Regency, the Bey has wrote a Letter to his Britannick Majeſty, the Purport of which is as follows:

To the moſt Auguſt and Invincible Monarch and Emperor of the Britiſh Nation.

"With the ſincereſt Joy we have ſeen the moſt Sage and Honourable Keppel, Commandant of your Majeſty's Ships, arrive here. He imparted to us your Majeſty's Intention to renew the Peace and Friendſhip between you and our Regency. This Affair having been propoſed in our laudable and enlighten'd Divan, all the Members thereof were unanimouſly of Opinion, that it was good and expedient to renew this Peace, becauſe the Engliſh being ancient Friends of this State, it was fit to give them Proofs of our reciprocal Inclination to maintain and cement Friendſhip with them. Thus the Treaty having been renewed, we expreſly ordered our Captains, charged to maintain the Glory of our Flag, to treat as Friends all the Ships of the Britiſh Nation which they ſhall meet with; to abſtain eſpecially from giving them any Trouble or Uneaſineſs, and to be very careful of not ſtopping or detaining them without a Cauſe, after the ſaid Ships ſhall have duly complied with what is required by Treaties, in ſuch Caſes as when our Ships, being in queſt of our Enemies, meet with Veſſels belonging to Nations in Friendſhip with us. It is our unfeigned Deſire to perform ingenuouſly, and without Reſervation, the Word and Promiſe we give to our Friends, particularly to ſuch whoſe Friendſhip is ſo eminent as your Majeſty's. We will be ſedulous to preſerve and increaſe that Friendſhip, and be diligent in removing all Obſtacles thereto: For it is with the higheſt Regard to Truth that we lay theſe Aſſurances before your Majeſty's Throne, that they may be a ſure Guarantee and certain Proof of our real and irrevocable Sentiments, &c."

Tunis, Oct. 6. Mr. Keppel, Commodore of the Engliſh Squadron in the Mediterranean, caſt Anchor about a Fortnight ago, in this Harbour, being come to treat about a Renewal of the Peace between this Regency and the Crown of Great Britain, and as he had already done at Algiers and Tripoli. He was received with a Salute from the Cannon of the Caſtles, and other Marks of the greateſt Reſpect. The Renewal of the Peace having been afterwards propoſed to the Divan, the Chiefs of the Regency, and all the Officers of the Army, unanimouſly agreed to it.

Tunis, Oct. 8. In the Treaty of Peace and Navigation which this State has juſt renewed with the King of Great Britain, it is ſtipulated among other Things, that the Engliſh Packet Boats ſhall be provided with Commiſſions from his Britannick Majeſty; that the Crews of Ships belonging to Port-Mahon and Gibraltar, muſt be two Thirds Natives of thoſe Ports, and the Reſt may be Foreigners; but if there be a greater Number of the latter, they ſhall be made Slaves, if met with by the Tuniſians. However, it is ſuppoſed, that this Article will not be rigorouſly executed: It is rather to be preſumed, that by Seamen Natives of Gibraltar and Port-Mahon, Natives of England will alſo be underſtood.

Two Ships are daily expected here, to treat about a Peace with the King of Denmark, to which the Regency does not ſeem averſe, but it is reſolved to make the beſt Hand of it; ſo that the Danes muſt expect to come down to large Supplies of Naval Stores, &c.

Genoa, Sept. 28. By Letters from Baſtia, of the 20th Inſtant, there is Advice, that ſome Heaths having taken Fire in Corſica, the Flames ſpread to the magnificent Woods, and in ſpight of all the Endeavours of the Country People, conſumed all the Trees, Villages and Hamlets, in a Tract of Land about 40 Miles in Length. The ſame Letters take Notice, that the Marquis de Curſay was returned to Baſtia, after having pacified the Inhabitants of the Pieve of Niolo, but ſet out again in order to diſtribute the French Troops into Winter Quarters on both Sides of the Mountains.

Hague, Dec. 7. The Body of his late Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, ſtill continues to lie in State.

Venice, Nov. 13. The laſt Letters from Conſtantinople, confirm, that the Ottoman Court is taking Meaſures for Peopling that City, where they reckon upwards of four hundred thouſand Souls have been ſwept away by the Peſtilence, which is the greateſt Number recorded in the Annals of the Ottoman Empire.

Barcelona, Nov. 14. Yeſterday an Edict was publiſhed here, by which all his Majeſty's Subjects whatſoever, are impowered to fit out armed Veſſels to cruize againſt the Barbary Corſairs; and all the Prizes they take are to be entirely their own Property.

Madrid, Nov. 16. On Wedneſday laſt was publiſhed an Edict of his Majeſty, by Virtue whereof, all Foreigners, of what Nation ſoever, without the leaſt Reſtriction or Reſerve, who were then reſident, not only in our Capital, but in any other City or Town within his Majeſty's Dominions, are enjoined to withdraw from their reſpective Places of abodes, within the Space of three Days; and in caſe any Perſon whomſoever ſhall preſume to neglect the Prohibition abovementioned, and ſhall be diſcovered, from and after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of three Days, to be computed from the Day of the Date of the ſaid Decree, ſuch Delinquent ſhall be ſentenced to work five Years ſucceſſively in the Gallies without Redemption.

The Publication of this wholſome, tho' ſomewhat ſevere Decree, has anſwerd the wiſh'd for End to all Intents and Purpoſes; for thereby we have got rid of a Swarm of Vagabonds, who have been guilty of Villanies.

Genoa, Nov. 20. The Captain of a Dutch Ship, arrived here lately from Cadiz, reports, that he met off Malaga, with four Spaniſh Frigates that were cruizing there, with a Deſign, as he imagined, to intercept two Ships loaded with Artillery and other warlike Stores, which the Magiſtrates of the City of Hamburgh ſent as a preſent to the Emperor of Morocco.

Vienna, Nov. 24. The Rebels of Croatia have been diſpoſed of in the following Manner: Kyouk, the Author of the Inſurrection, was broke alive upon the Wheel, without any Mitigation of the Torture; four of his Accomplices were hanged, one beheaded, eight ſentenced to work on the Fortifications, and three to run the Gantlope. A Greek Prieſt, who had been ſeduced by Kyouk to abuſe his reſpectable Function, in ſtimulating the People, and fomenting the Revolt, has been degraded and impriſoned for Life. Some have been pardoned, ſome baniſhed, and thoſe who baniſhed themſelves, have been hung up in Effigy. Further, as an indelible Blot, the Towns of Pruono and Lovinatz, where the Revolt firſt broke out, have forfeited their original Names; Pruono is to be called Peter, and Lovinatz St. Michael; the firſt to teach them Repentance, and the latter Loyalty; they are likewiſe, with the Town of Mogorich, deprived of Bells, for having uſed them as Signals of Rebellion.

Paris, Nov. 26. The 12th of next Month, if the Weather permits, is fixed for playing off the unparallel'd Fireworks at Verſailles.

The laſt Letters from Cadiz inform us, that ſo far is the King of Spain from contracting the India Commerce, as had been reported, that he has added eight new Ships to the Regiſter for Vera Cruz, and ſome will alſo load for Carthagena.

Laſt Monday the King ſent for the Parliament Regiſters, and examined them. On the 23d, the Parliament being met in a full Aſſembly, the King's Pleaſure was publickly read, being, That their Proceedings ſhould be ſuſpended; upon which every Man went unto his own Home.

Paris, Nov. 20. The Fire-work which is to be plaid off at Verſailles, on account of the Duke of Burgundy's Birth, and the Dauphineſs's Recovery, is 4200 Feet in Front, and 200 Feet in Height. The Decorations are moſt ſuperb. Their Majeſties will ſup in State; and there is to be a Drawing-Room three Days ſucceſſively, during which their Majeſties will alſo ſup in State every Night.

Hague, Dec. 6. The Deputies of the Merchants of Dort, after the Example of thoſe of Amſterdam and Rotterdam, have deputed ſeven of their Body to wait on her Royal Highneſs the Governante, with their Thanks for the Project, propoſed by the late Prince her Conſort, for cauſing Commerce to flouriſh in theſe Provinces. They at the ſame time recommended that Affair to the Attention of her Royal Highneſs, who received them in the moſt gracious Manner, and aſſured them, That ſhe would make it a Law to herſelf, to exactly follow the Ideas of the late Prince her Conſort, in reſpect to the Execution of the Projects that his Serene Highneſs had not Time to bring to Perfection; That ſhe would uſe all her Endeavours to procure the Succeſs of the Regulations made for promoting the Intereſt of Commerce; and ſhould always have the Advancement and Proſperity of it at Heart.

LONDON.

November 1. Advice came, that three large Colliers worth 10,000 l. were loſt in a Storm, coming from Whitby to London, but the Crews were ſaved by a Pink that ſtruck on the ſame Sand in which they were loſt, but drawing little Water got off. The Weather was ſo foggy that they could make no Obſervation for 6 Days, nor knew where they were but by ſounding.

Nov. 2. In a private Letter from Glaſgow, they write, that the Workhouſe which has been erecting there for ſome Time paſt, is now finiſhed, which not only provides for the Poor in that City, but all the Poor in the adjacent Countries; that upwards of a Thouſand People are contained in it, who are ſo induſtriouſly employed, and the Oeconomy of their Houſe ſo well regulated, the Governors giving their Attendance for Nothing, and never carouſing at the Expence of the poor People (a Practice but too general) that the Product of their Labour, upon an accurate Computation, is thought will be ſufficient to maintain them, without any Supply from charitable Contributions; and there is no ſuch Thing as a Beggar to be ſeen in the Streets.

They write from France, that the Vintage in Burgundy, Champagne, and Bourdeaux, is indifferent this Year; and that the Corn Harveſt was ſo bad, that they muſt import great Quantities from Foreign Countries.

We are aſſured, that 160,000 l. Sterling was remitted laſt Year into this Kingdom, on account of Exportation of Corn, and this Year it is expected to be much larger, as the Crops have very much failed Abroad.

We learn from a certain Country, that the reigning Monarch is inclined to ſoften the Rigour of the Inquiſion, by obliging that Tribunal not to commit any Perſon to Priſon without being able to produce his Accuſer; and in caſe the Priſoner ſhall appear to be innocent, to ſubject that Accuſer to the very ſame Penalties the Priſoner would have been liable to, in caſe he had been really guilty. Some intelligent Perſons however, are very doubtful whether this good Deſign can be brought to bear, as the Holy Office is ſupported both by the Authority and Intrigues of the Holy See.

Nov. 5. Lord Carpenter, grand Preſident, held a quarterly Committee of the ſeveral Aſſociates of Antigallicans, when it was agreed to give a Præmium of 10 Guineas for the beſt Piece of Engliſh Bone-lace proper for Mens Ruffles, and 5 Guineas for the ſecond beſt; alſo a Præmium of 10 Guineas to the Drawer of the beſt Pattern for Brocade-weaving, and 5 Guineas for the ſecond beſt; both which Præmiums are to be determin'd in their quarterly Commitee to be held next May.

Nov. 9. Thoſe who have the Safety, as well as the Proſperity, of the Northern Colonies at Heart, humbly hope, That due Care will be taken to prevent the French from having it in their Power to put any Reſtriction upon the Indian Nations that trade with us, under Colour of their being within or without any Limits which may be ſettled in that Part of America.

Nov. 14. The Streets of Vienna ſwarming with Beggars, notwithſtanding the Orders iſſued ſome Time ago for taking them up, and ſending them to Workhouſes, &c. the Government has thought fit to iſſue a new Proclamation concerning them, whereby all are forbid, under the Penalty of a certain Fine, to give any Alms, becauſe 'tis too evident that ſuch Charity, though well intended, ſcarcely anſwers any other End than promoting Idleneſs, and increaſing the Number of common Beggars, many of whom daily pick up more Money than moſt labouring People can earn.

Letters from Rome ſay, that the Publick will ſpeedily be gratified with an authentick Relation of the Converſion of the King of Gilolo, an Iſland in the Indian Archipelago, drawn up by the General of the Dominicans; and they moreover aſſure us, that the ſaid King will ſend a ſolemn Embaſſy to pay Obedience to the Holy Father, and the Roman Church. Theſe Letters alſo inform us, that the Pope has conferred on the Cardinal of York the Dignity of Arch-Prieſt of St. Peters, which had been ſome Time vacant, and likewiſe the Prefectorſhip of the ſaid Church, to enable his Eminence to live with Splendor ſuitable to his Birth.

Letters from Franckfort adviſe, that the French have lately bought up a great deal of Corn in Swabia, in the Bergſtraſſe, and other Parts of Germany; and that all this Grain is to be ſent to their American Colonies, particularly St. Domingo and Martinico.

By Advices from Madrid we learn, that among other Expedients propoſed for putting an End to all Diſputes with with England, such distinct Limits shall be assigned in the West Indies, that the English Vessels shall not go beyond them, not even in case of a Storm, or any other Accident that may happen at Sea.——Are they out of their Senses, or do they think we have lost ours?

It is said that some People begin to perceive a Necessity for fitting out twenty Men of War, which small Number it seems, cannot be mann'd without pressing, the French and Spaniards having got many Thousands of our Seamen (besides great Numbers of Artificers) into their Service since the Peace; therefore it is expected that a P———n will be issued for calling them home; and that besides the Penalties and Ménaces usually denounced on such Occasions, there will be a Promise of better Usage for the future.

We hear that the Entertainment which was intended to be given on the 12th Instant, by the French Ambassador at the Opera House, in Honour of the Birth of the Duke of Burgundy, and which was postponed on Account of the Death of the Prince of Orange, is still put off, nor is it certain when the Day will be fixed, as the Wines, Sweetmeats, and the principal Part of the Provisions are to be furnished from France,—— a mere English Entertainment, not being esteemed superbe enough to celebrate so great and happy an Event.

Nov. 16. The Hon. Colonel Amyand Pawlet, Esq; to whom the Prize of 10,000 l. belonged, that was drawn last Thursday, was seized with an Apoplectick Fit, the same Day, just as he was going out from his Country House for London, and died in an Hour or two after.

Nov. 25. We are assured that Henry Fielding, Esq; has laid before the Right Hon. Henry Pelham, Esq; a Scheme for employing the Poor, much to the Advantage of the Nation and themselves; and also for putting an effectual Stop to the daring Outrages and Robberies we have lately been too much alarmed with; and it is hoped it will meet with an Attention due to its Importance.

Nov. 26. By some private Letters from France, we have an Account, that divers Persons of considerable Substance having subscribed to a Project for carrying on a Fishery, had received Advice, that twenty four of their Vessels, who sailed three Months ago on the Cod-Fishery, were on their Return Home fully laden, which was likely to produce a very great Advantage to the Publick.

December 5. The following short Proposal has been made by a Merchant at Amsterdam, and is looked upon there as excellent in its Kind, and practicable in its Nature. All our Ports being declared free, will revive Commerce; Taxes being taken off Necessaries, and laid only upon Luxuries, will make Labour cheap, and working People happy; discourage Indolence and Pleasure, will make Industry reputable. These Regulations will restore the Quiet, raise the Revenue, and secure the future Tranquility of the Republick.

According to Advices from Milan, they are making considerable Repairs, at the Ducal Palace in that City, and fitting up the Apartments thereof with the utmost Magnificence. On which Occasion some People there scruple not to say, that they are at the Eve of changing Masters; especially since the Government has very lately sold off a great Quantity of Muskets, Pistols, Swords, and Bayonets, that had been laid up in the Castle of Milan since the last War, and at the same time sent away some Artillery from thence to Mantua.

If we may give Credit to our Accounts from Italy, all Things are again in Confusion in Corsica; the French Troops have intrenched themselves in the Jesuits College, near Bastia, upon observing the Natives, under the Protection of the Genoese, in Motion; that M. de Cursay is very ill, that such an universal Diffidence prevails, that even the neareſt Relations can hardly trust each other.

Last Week the Wife of a Scotch Pedlar, residing at Brentford, brought him three Sons, all of full Growth, and likely to live, at one Birth; and about two Years ago the same prolifick Woman brought forth a Son and Daughter, who are now alive. Some Years before the Rebellion he was a Servant to the noted Laird of Glenbucket, and often waited at Table when that Gentleman dined with fourteen Sons and seven Daughters, all married, except the youngest.

Our Letters from Amsterdam say, that the Merchants have represented to her Royal Highness the Princess Governess, the present Time is peculiarly favourable to their Projects; and that it is of the highest Importance to declare some Ports free in the Dominions of the Republick without Delay.

On the first of November, died the Hon. Col. Thomas Lascelles, late Surveyor-General of the Ordnance, in the 82d Year of his Age.—He was also Chief Engineer of Great Britain, and Deputy Quarter-Master-General of all his Majesty's Forces.----He had been 63 Years in the Service of his King and Country, was at the Glorious Battle at the Boyne, and dangerously wounded at Hocksett. He underwent the Fatigue of 21 Campaigns, and was present at 36 Engagements.

Letters from Rome take Notice, that the Pope very well knows the Place of the young Pretender's Residence, though it is still a Secret to the Publick; the Chevalier and the Cardinal of York having lately received some Dispatches from him, which they immediately communicated to his Holiness at a private Audience.

PHILADELPHIA, March 3.

Last Week arrived here Capt. Marshall, from Antigua, who, in Latitude 35 30 North, Longitude 65 20 West, spoke with Capt. Sprout, in a Sloop belonging to Norfolk, in Virginia, in great Distress; he had been Forty-eight Days from St. Christophers for Norfolk, most of which Time beating upon this Coast, under very hard Gales of Wind, which laid him twice on the Careen, by which his Loading shifted, and his Sails were tore to Pieces; his Hands mostly sick, and very short of Provisions. Capt. Marshall would have taken the People on board his Vessel, if the Weather would have permitted, but as it would not, he threw as much Beef, Bread, Candles, Twine, &c. into the Sloop, as would carry her to Bermuda, for which they made the best of their Way, having a Piece of a spare Jib for a Foresail.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

By the Ship Fame, Capt. Seymour, who is arrived at New-York, in eight Weeks from Dover, we have the following Advices, viz.

VIENNA, Dec. 4.

MR. Keith, the Britiſh Miniſter, has acquainted the Miniſtry, that the King of Great-Britain propoſes to viſit his Electorate next April; which Piece of News gives their Imperial Majeſties great Pleaſure. Soon after the Arrival of his Britannick Majeſty at Hanover, a Congreſs will be held there by the Miniſters of moſt of the Courts of the Empire.

Paris, Dec. 24. The Britiſh Commiſſaries continue to endeavour to ſettle with thoſe of our Court, the reſpective Limits in America; but it appears that this Affair meets with many Difficulties, by reaſon of the Extent which each Crown pretends to give its Territories.

Madrid, Nov. 30. Our Woollen Manufactury improves every Day, more and more, by Means of the great Numbers of Foreigners, who come over to be employed in it. There are about 60 different Places where this Manufacture is carried on; and in order to encourage the Parties concerned in it, there is a Talk of reviving the old Edicts which prohibit the Exportation of Wool. Mr. Keene, Ambaſſador from the King of Great-Britain, has had another long Conference with the Miniſtry, relating to the Settlements of the Engliſh upon the Muſketo-Shore in America, and the Fort they have built at Rattan. Our Court pretends that thoſe Settlements are contrary to the Tenor of the late Treaty of Aix-la-Chappelle; but, on the other Hand, the Britiſh Court thinks it has a Right to ſupport them, by Virtue of three preceding Treaties, which were not aboliſhed by that of Aix-la-Chapelle. This Incident ſeems to have ſomewhat retarded Mr. Keene's Negociation concerning a free Navigation in the Weſt-Indies; but it is not doubted, but proper Meaſures will be found out to accommodate this Affair. The Court has ſent freſh Orders to the Commandants of Places in America, relating to the Conduct to be obſerved by Guarda-Coaſts in thoſe Parts.

Cadiz, Dec. 3. We have had very ſtormy Weather for ſome Days paſt, in which ſeveral Veſſels have been driven away upon our Coaſt, and among them, the Sarah, Smith, from Dantzick, laden with Timber and Wax, was loſt againſt the Rocks, and only three Men ſaved.

From the Paris A-la-main, Dec. 13.

By Letters from Genoa, bearing Date the 29th of November laſt, we hear, that the Inhabitants had felt a violent Shock of an Earthquake; and ſince that, other Inconveniences have attended them through the ſame unhappy Cauſe; for ſeveral of the Houſes there, have been ſo ſhattered, that ſome of them have been obliged to be ſupported by Props directly, for Fear of their immediate falling. The Ships likewiſe, that were riding at Anchor in that Port, have received very conſiderable Damage through the foaming Billows of the Sea. The Centinels, who were upon the Ramparts, declare that they ſaw at the ſame Time a Light, like Fire, ariſe out of the Earth. This Earthquake affected, we are told, almoſt every Part of the ſaid Iſland.

From the London Magazine for the Month of October we have the CHARACTER of his moſt ſerene Highneſs, the late Prince of ORANGE, given from the Hague, as follows.

"The beſt Panegyrick we can make on the deceaſed Prince, is, That he is regretted by all true Patriots; and indeed, none of his Predeceſſors deſerved it more; for if ſome of them did greater Things in the Eyes of the Vulgar, it was becauſe the Conjunctures favoured them; They laboured for the Good of their Country, and ſo did our late Stadtholder with a Zeal inferior to none. He poſſeſſed in an eminent Degree the Qualities that form the honeſt and the great Man. In the Duties of Religion he was ſtrict and ſincere, and free from all Superſtition, giving an edifying Example of Piety to all about him. The Serenity of his Countenance was the Index of a virtuous Soul. To theſe principal Qualities he joined good Nature, Affability, and ſo much Attention to pleaſe and meet People Half-way in their Sentiments and Requeſts, that none went away from his Preſence diſſatisfied. To a Mind cultivated by the moſt uſeful Arts and Sciences, he joined the Talent ſo neceſſary in great Princes and Stateſmen, of behaving with Dignity. Hearing every one patiently, he readily took their Thought, however prolix, conciſe, or obſcure it might be, and anſwered them with equal Gracefulneſs and Preciſeneſs. Having been raiſed to the Stadtholderſhip in 1747, in critical Conjunctures, from the Events produced by the Death of the Emperor Charles VI. his chief Study was to reſtore Peace to the Republick, that he might afterwards labour more ſucceſsfully towards putting her Domeſtick Affairs in better Order. The firſt Point having been gained by the Peace of Aix-la-Chappelle, he continued intent upon the ſecond till the Day of his Death. The Plan for reviving Trade, which he delivered to the States-General before his late Journey to Aix-la-Chapelle, will be a laſting Monument, whether it be executed or not, of the Care he took of the publick Good."

From the London Magazine for the Month of November, 1751.

——"Alas! all Mankind have loſt a Friend in this excellent Prince; Commerce ſeems expiring at his Tomb; while poor Batavia ſinks beneath her cumbrous Load of Affliction; nor can Britain be inſenſible of the Blow; it pierces home to her Heart; and brings freſh to her Soul the Memory of her Royal FREDERICK, the beloved Patron of Arts, and Encourager of Sciences."

Tranſlation of the King of Spain's Declaration againſt the Republick of Hamburgh, viz.

"The pernicious Conſequences reſulting to the true Intereſt of my Crown and Vaſſals, from the Treaty lately concluded by the City of Hamburgh, with the Regency of Algiers, and the Conſideration of the many Advantages the Hamburghers enjoy from the free Commerce with my Dominions, converted by this Treaty, in ſubminiſtering to my Enemies the Succours, Stores, and Ammunitions, they want, in order to make War againſt me; the Dignity of my Crown, nor the Care with which I watch for the Good of my People, does not permit me to ſit ſilent, without ſhewing ſome Sign of my Diſpleaſue at the Conduct of that City: Wherefore, I have reſolved to prohibit, and do abſolutely prohibit all Commerce between my Subjects and Dominions, and the City of Hamburgh, its Inhabitants, Dependants, and Subjects thereof; and I order, that fifty Days after the Publication of this Decree, there ſhall not be admitted in any of my Ports and Dominions any of their Subjects, entirely prohibiting all Sorts of Manufactures and Produce of her Territories; and that in the Term of three Months, all Agents, Conſuls, and Subjects of the aforementioned City, reſiding in my ſaid Dominions, ſhall, and do quit, and get out of the ſame, permitting them during the ſaid Term, to ſettle their Affairs, and export their Effects, well underſtood, and at the Expiration thereof all Confiſcations and Forfeitures ſuitable in ſuch Caſe ſhall be inflicted on the Tranſgreſſors; and let the Council of War take Notice thereof, for the due Execution ſo far as relates thereto. Dated at Lorenzo, the 19th of October, 1751.

(Signed)

Don AUGUSTIN DE ORDENANA".

Extract of a Letter from a Hamburgh Merchant at Madrid, to his Correſpondent at Bayonne, dated October 30. N. S.

SIR,

"I have already adviſed you of the unexpected Cataſtrophe that has happened to our Commerce, by the Publication of the Decree of the 25th Inſtant. We are yet ſo ſtunn'd with this Blow, that we can ſcarcely recover from the Impreſſion it has made on us. Our Fellow Citizens have reſolved to leave no Stone unturned, in order to bring the Court into a better Temper; for if the ſole Cauſe of our Diſgrace is the Treaty concluded with the Emperor of Morocco, it ſhould ſeem, that all the Trading Nations, who have made Treaties with that Prince, ought to ſuffer with us: And we only hear that there is a Probability of treating the Danes in the ſame Manner. If the Rule was general, the Engliſh ought to be included in it, rather than our City, ſince no European Nation ſends ſo many Ships to trade in the Emperor of Morocco's Ports as the Engliſh do. It appears that the Court of Spain's Indignation ariſes from the Obligation we are under, by our Treaty with the ſaid Emperor, to furniſh him with a certain Quantity of Warlike Stores; but every One knows, that the Powers on the African Coaſts never treat but upon that Footing, and that the Preſents moſt acceptable to them are Artillery, Ammunition and Naval Stores. However it be, we may ſuppoſe, that our Commerce having conſiderably increaſed in Spain within theſe twenty Years, and not without great Advantage to this Kingdom, the Merchants of ſome other Nation have grown jealous of us, and by ſome malignant Inſinuations, which we could not guard againſt, have influenced the Spaniſh Court to proceed to Extremities with us. We have already taken ſeveral Steps towards getting the Decree revoked, and ſhall continue to beſtir ourſelves during the Term allowed us to ſtay in this Country. What Succeſs we may have it is impoſſible to foreſee. His Excellency the Marqueſs de la Enſenada is a Nobleman of great Integrity and Candour, but it will prove no eaſy Taſk to obtain from him an Alteration in a Diſpoſition which is back'd by the reſpectable Authority of his Catholick Majeſty. The Correſpondents and Factors of the Danes are not leſs uneaſy and perplexed than we are, though they might rely on the Treaty of Commerce in Force between their Court and Spain; beſides which, a ſovereign monarchical State may always claim more Civility and Regard than is ſhewn to a poor Hans Town, &c"

LONDON.

Nov. 22. As the late extraordinary Prevalency of Irreligion has been taken Notice of by the moſt reſpectable Authority, it is hoped that all who are thoroughly ſenſible of the Evils it is productive of, will contribute in their reſpective Stations towards bringing about a Reformation; and that, among other Steps conducive to that End, they will no longer think it expedient, or any Security to the Eſtabliſhment Civil and Eccleſiaſtick, to give holy Things to Dogs; as the doing ſo can anſwer no other End but letting Hypocrites and Profligates of all Sects, even Atheiſts and Deiſts, get into Places where Irreligion prevails, any Oaths may be taken, any Teſt complied with, for the Sake of Power and Profit. Hence we need not wonder at ill Management, theſe many Years paſt, in the various Branches of publick Affairs; for if under a Chriſtian Government it is not neceſſary for a Man to prove himſelf a Chriſtian by his Actions, in order to hold a Poſt, but ſufficient that he receives the Sacrament, no matter how prepared, and is beſides qualified to crib for himſelf, or do any mean or illegal Jobb he may be put upon; what elſe can be expected but Profaneneſs, Corruption, Fraud, Perjury, Idleneſs, Gaming, and Extravagance? And what muſt be the End of theſe Things, if not timely and vigorouſly check'd?—Look into the Hiſtory of former Ages, conſult the Annals of other Nations; they will inform you.

Dec. 10. We hear, that a Perſon of Character is ſpeedily expected from the Weſt-Indies, who will be able to give the Publick a full Account, from his own Knowledge, of the preſent Situation of Things in thoſe Parts; and more eſpecially as to the Progreſs of the French in the Neutral Iſlands, the Number of Families ſettled in each of them, the Nature of their Soil and Produce.

It is reported, on the Credit of ſome private Letters from Leghorn, that three Engliſh Men of War, lately arrived in the Road of Tunis, has occaſioned a general Rumour there, that a Negotiation is on Foot with that Republick, for the Sale of the Iſland of Tabarca, remarkable for its Fertility, and its convenient Situation.

Extract of a private Letter from Beverly, dated October 12.

"There are great Numbers here leaving off Buſineſs, in order to go to Nova-Scotia next Spring: This is ſo general an Intention among the Farmers and Huſbandmen in ſeveral Counties of England, that 200 Farms and upwards have lately been quitted in Yorkſhire, and the like has happened in ſome of the neighbouring Counties. This well deſerves the Conſideration of the Legiſlature; as by this Means we may become reduced to the ſame deplorable Condition as Sweden was by Charles XII. who depopulated his Kingdom ſo much by War, that the Women were obliged to till the Ground."

Dec. 12. An Engliſh Gentleman, juſt arrived in Town from Rochelle, having had the Curioſity to ſtep into the Great Dock there, in order to take a View of what they were doing, was very civilly deſired to go and air himſelf any where in and about the Place, but not preſume to come into the Docks. They had then about fifty Sail in that Port, ſome being Men of War and Frigates, and the reſt Merchantmen, beſides ſeveral Ships of Force on the Stocks.

We hear that a Squadron of Men of War are ordered to rendezvous about the Beginning of February at Spithead.

From Paris we have Advice, that the Spaniards have carried carried into St. Domingo, a French Ship bound from Martinico to Nantz, becauſe ſhe had a conſiderable Sum in Piaſters on board, and conſequently, in their Judgment, muſt have been concerned in a contraband Trade; the French, by Way of Repriſals, have detained at Cape Francois, the Felix Regiſter Ship, which put in there in her Paſſage from Vera Cruz to Cadiz, and have taken out the greateſt Part of her Cargo, which, in the Whole, is valued at one Million five hundred Thouſand Piaſters. [From hence it appears, that the French won't ſuffer themſelves to be inſulted without Repriſals, as ſome other Nations do.]

Dec. 14. The Lords of the Admiralty have given Orders for the Payment of ſome of the Guard Ships, and others, at Portſmouth; and alſo to order the ſeveral Ships repairing there, to be got ready for the Sea forthwith.

Dec. 16. We hear from good Authority, that his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland is much better ſince his late Illneſs, than he has been for two Years laſt paſt.

This Day came an Account, that on the 22d of October laſt, there happened a moſt terrible Hurricane at Newfoundland, and a great Number of Ships were damaged; and that the Speedwell, C. Moor, and the Charlton, C. Miſlor, were both of them loſt in Trinity-Harbour; the former in Ballaſt, and the latter with Fiſh.

Dec. 19. On Tueſday laſt died at Spinham-Land, in his Road from Bath to Hampton, in the 76th Year of his Age, Sir William Gooch, Bart. (formerly Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia) His Title and Eſtate devolves to the Right Rev. Dr. Gooch, Biſhop of Ely.

Dec. 20. They write from Toulon, that a Body of 1200 regular Troops is arrived there, in order to embark in ſome of the Men of War fitting out in that Port, but they give no Hints concerning their Deſtination.

Extract of a Letter from Naples, Nov. 30.

"Our laſt Advices from Madrid, make mention of a Project for deſtroying the Marine of Algiers; they don't enter into Particulars, but only ſay in general Terms, that it will be ſuch a bold Stroke as will ſurprize the World. It is not doubted but our Court will concur in this laudable and neceſſary Enterprize; and we hope that ſome other Italian Powers will think themſelves bound in Honour and Intereſt to do the ſame."

Dec. 21. Yeſterday an Expreſs arrived at St. James's, with the melancholly Account of the Death of her Majeſty Louiſa Queen of Denmark, youngeſt Daughter of our moſt gracious Sovereign King George the Second: Her Majeſty was far advanced in her Pregnancy, and her Death is ſaid to have been cauſed by her haſtily ſtooping, whereby ſhe was inſtantly ſenſible of having hurt herſelf. She was born Dec. 7, 1724, and was married to Frederick, the preſent King of Denmark, Nov. 30, 1743. And has left Iſſue one Prince, and three Princeſſes.

1. Princeſs Sophia Magdalen, born July 3, 1746.
2. Princeſs Wilhelmina Carolina, born July 10, 1747.
3. Prince Chriſtian, born January 29, 1748-9.
4. Princeſs Louiſa, born January 30, 1749-50.

We learn from Madrid, that ſome Negotiations are on the Carpet there, which are carried on with ſuch unuſual Secrecy, as induces moſt People to believe, that they are of very great Importance; that their new Manufactures ſucceed ſo well, that they are ſet up in at leaſt threeſcore Places; and that the Court has received Advice of a Regiſter Ship lately arrived at Cadiz, very richly laden.

We hear that Orders have been ſent to his Majeſty's Yards, to expedite the ſeveral Men of War intended to be ſent to North-America, and the Weſt-Indies.

A Scheme is drawn up, and will ſoon be laid before the Parliament, for employing Vagrants, and other idle Perſons, who have no viſible Way of living, in the Herring Fiſhery; and for the better maintaining thoſe, who, through Age or Infirmities, are incapable of Labour, by their reſpective Families.

We hear that an Act will be brought in this Seſſions to make ſome additional Proviſions to the Act for changing the Stile.

We hear that an Expreſs has within this Fortnight, brought over a Memorial, which was delivered to the Earl of Albemarle, by the French Commiſſaries that are actually treating with our Commiſſaries about Limits in America; in which Memorial they ſet forth the Claims of the Crown of France to certain Territories in that Part of the World, and demand the reſpective Limits be ſettled thereto.

Dec. 21. Private Letters from Paris intimate, that the young Ch-v----r is actually incog. in France; and that the Earl of A--------e, upon Information thereof, having complained to the French Miniſtry, was anſwered, That they could not take Notice of any Perſon that kept incog. That if he made any publick Appearance, they ſhould not fail to ſend him out of the Kingdom; but at preſent all they could ſay, was, that they knew nothing of the Matter.---If this be Fact, it may partly account for the laying aſide the Grand Preparations in the Hay-market.

Yeſterday arrived a Mail from Spain, brought by the Swallow Packet, Capt. Sherborn, by which there is an Account, that ſeven Ships of War were failed from Algiers, to cruize towards the Archipelago, and ſeveral others were in the Dock.

By the ſame Mail there are ſome Letters which mention, that Admiral Stuart was ſailed with the Squadron of Men of War under his Command, but to what Place bound they were not certain, tho' it was generally believed, according to the Courſe he ſteer'd, he was deſtined for the Weſt-Indies.

Our Correſpondent at Paris writes, that the Eaſt-India Company continue to embark on board their Ships vaſt Quantities of Manufactures, as well as conſiderable Sums in ready Money, together with Artillery, naval and warlike Stores; ſo that it is generally believed they mean to puſh their Projects in thoſe Parts, with all imaginable Vigour; which is the more probable, as ſome Men of War are to proceed thither ſome Time next Month.

ANNAPOLIS, January 23.

On the 15th Inſtant, John Berry, was executed at Soldier's Delight, in Baltimore County, and afterwards hung in Chains, near the Place where he contriv'd the horrid Murder of Mrs. Clark.

On Friday Night laſt, the Furnace for making Iron, belonging to Mr. Lawſon, and Others, in Baltimore County, took Fire, and burnt to the Ground: It is ſaid 1000 l. Sterling will not repair the Damage. This Accident was occaſioned by keeping too large a Fire near the Wheel, to prevent the Ice from clogging it up.

Extract of a Letter from Frederick County, dated January 31.

"I am informed, that upwards of 50 Dogs have run mad, within the Neighbourhoods of Linganore and Pipe Creek, two Men were bit by them near Piney Run, one of whom died mad in three, the other in nine Days, in all the horrid Agonies of that Diſtemper: Mr. John Howard, Son of Gideon, within theſe 10 Days, has had two of his Servants bit by Dogs, which they have ſince kill'd as mad; but the People as yet have felt none of its dreadful Conſequences; one of the People I ſaw Yeſterday, who told me, that he was bit in the Arm, and that he bled very much."

Feb. 20. This Day arrived in Weſt River from London, the Brig Grove, Capt George Bell, who informs us, That Capt. Judd, in the Neptune, from Severn River, on his Paſſage to London, in the Night Time, ran foul of another Ship, and received ſome Damage, but not ſo as to hurt his Cargo. The People on board the other Ship called to Capt. Judd, to bring to, which he did as ſoon as poſſible; for in the Confuſion they could not tell which Ship was moſt wounded. The other Ship hove out Lights, but as they all diſappeared at once, they are ſuppoſed to have ſunk down and periſh'd. Part of her Head was found on board the Neptune, and they imagined her to be a New-England Ship. Capt. Judd ſailed from hence about the 20th of Auguſt laſt.

We have by the laſt Southern Poſt, in the Virginia Gazette, N°. 49. the following Article, viz. "The "Greyhound, Capt. Gracey, with 150 Convicts on "board, bound for Maryland, is put into James's Ri-"ver.——We congratulate the Marylanders on the ſafe "Arrival of theſe RECRUITS." Thanks for this Virginian Compliment! But the Author, it is probable, did not think of the old trite Proverb, That the Pot ſhould not call the Kettle Black A——. It is ſaid, Capt. Gracey, who brought THOSE RECRUITS into Potowmack, ſold the chief Part of them on the SOUTH Side of that River;

We hear from Rye, that ſome Time in November laſt, as an old Man was going home at Night, ſome Ruffians (which there is a Club of them) ſeized him, and bruiſed him in a ſurprizing Manner, and after ſearching his Pockets, left him in a deplorable Condition, and he believed, (as he often ſaid) that ſome of his Ribs were broke; and continued in a declining State of Health, and in Deſpair of recovering, and died the 19th ult. The Coroner's Inqueſt ſat on him, and found Natural Death; all agreed, excepting one Man, that would not agree to it.

To the Publiſhers of the PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

THE Froſt ſeems going off; I wiſh you Joy of its Departure, &c.

I fancy you have been ſomewhat ſcarce of Occurrences by it. I have lately met with theſe Epigrams, which I ſend you, which ſeem, partly at leaſt, owing to the Froſt. We have had Lapland Odes, and there is a Song on the feather'd Snow deſcending, but theſe Pieces look to have a new Turn, and may paſs, eſpecially in a Dearth of News, for an American Curioſity; if you think ſo they are at your Service for the Publick, and perhaps I may ſee you e'er long ſome other Pieces of the ſame Writer's.

The OPEN CHAIR.

On meeting a fine old Gentleman, and a very fair young Lady his Daughter, on the Road, in a hard Froſt.

ALONG the Road, as, in an open Chair,
I wiſh'd for Cover from the froſty Air;
I met another, which two Perſons held,
Who in Variety of Grace excell'd.
Here, hoary Years had faſhion'd aged Worth,
And Beauty there, in all its Bloom ſhone forth:
Henceforth, I'll learn a Chair like this to prize,
Since ſuch fine Objects, thence, could ſtrike my Eyes.
The Cold, the Toil, the Foreſt were repaid,
The Sire ſo reverend, and ſo fair the Maid.
The lovely Viſion as my Thoughts eſteem'd,
An Angel by a Patriarch fitting ſeem'd.

To LUCINDA.

LUCINDA, what d' you call this froſty Jaunt,
When ſuch Wood Nymphs come forth their Bow to t'enchant?
What, don't you know? This People calls it Slaying;
'Tis very right:-----Y'are doing what y'are ſaying:
Not like ſome others, to their Words untrue,
You ſay, Lucinda, only what you do.

The CAUTION.

IN other Lands, oft times their airing Fair,
Inclos'd with Curtains, ſcarce can breathe freſh Air.
In dim Obſcurity, their Charms are veil'd,
And from the Sun, and from Mankind conceal'd.
But here, ev'n chilling Froſt the Beauties dare,
And Conqueſts boaſt from each triumphal Car.
Thro' the ſharp Nitre darts the wounding Flame,
While Danger doubles from each fierce Extreme.
At ſuch a Time, fond Youth ſhould ſure be wiſe,
And ſhut their Breaſts.---But can they ſhut their Eyes?
'Tis true, they partly may exclude the Froſt,
But how the Flame, when thus the Fair accoſt?

The Cargo of the Fleet from Rio de Janeiro, which arrived here the 24th of laſt Month, conſiſts of three Millions of Gold on the King's Account, and ten Millions for the Merchants, beſides a valuable Loading of Sugar and Hides.

Paris, Nov. 29. The Deputies of the Parliament having been ſent for to Verſailles the 21ſt Inſtant, to be informed of the King's Intentions, the Account of what paſſed there has been entered in their Regiſters as follows:

"This Day, November 21, the King having, in Conſequence of the Arret of his Council of the 20th of this Month, ordered the firſt Preſident of the Parliament of Paris to repair to him, with the two eldeſt Preſidents of the Parliament that might be in Town, and the Advocates General and Attorney-General, to receive his Orders, and to bring his Majeſty the Minutes of the two Reſolutions voted in Parliament the 20th of July laſt, about the Declaration of the 24th of March preceding, containing a Regulation for the Adminiſtration of the General Hoſpital of Paris, as alſo the Minutes of the two Reſolutions of the 5th and 20th of Auguſt, and the Minutes of another Reſolution of the 7th of September laſt, with the Regiſters in which the ſaid Arrets and Reſolutions have been entered; and in caſe the ſaid Arrets and Reſolutions ſhould not have been regiſtered, to bring the laſt Regiſter of the Arrets and Reſolutions of the Parliament: Upon the Report made to his Majeſty by the firſt Preſident, that none of the ſaid Arrets and Reſolutions had yet been inſerted in the Rigiſters, the laſt Regiſter of Ordinances ending the 31ſt of May 1738, and the laſt Regiſter of the Secret Council ending the 6th of October, 1741, the Minutes were by him delivered to his Majeſty, who has kept them, in order to their being ſuppreſſed, purſuant to the Arret of his Council of the 20th of this preſent Month, which has been tranſcribed in the preſent Regiſter, by Order and in Preſence of his Majeſty, and alſo in Preſence of the ſaid Preſidents, Advocates-General and Attorney-General of the Parliament of Paris: I, Counſellor of the King in all his Councils, Miniſter and Secretary of State of his Commands, and Finances, being likewiſe preſent."

Then the King ſaid to the firſt Preſident, "You are to give an Account to my Parliament of what has been tranſacted in my Preſence, and likewiſe tell them, that I forbid all Deliberations and all Meetings on this Subject, about which I will receive no Remonſtrances nor Repreſentations." To which the firſt Preſident made Anſwer, "That though it was impoſſible for him to expreſs the Grief of the Parliament at ſuch Treatment, he could aſſure his Majeſty that every Member of that Body, was ready to make a Sacrifice of his Life and Fortune for the King's Service."

The Deputies being returned to Paris, and having made a Report of the whole Tranſaction to the Parliament, the Dean, or eldeſt Member of the Aſſembly, ſaid to the firſt Preſident, "The Aſſembly declare to you, that they think the Prohibition to deliberate being an Interdiction of all Functions, they neither can nor will continue to do any Service." All the Members were of the ſame Opinion, and the Parliament ſuſpended its Functions: The Advocates alſo immediately ſhut up their Chambers, and all Buſineſs was at a Stand.

Yeſterday an Order from the King was brought to every Counſellor, importing, that they muſt this Day aſſemble in the Chambers they belonged to, and adminiſter Juſtice, on Pain of Diſobedience.

Paris, Dec. 3. Purſuant to the Order above mentioned, the Counſellors of the Parliament repaired to their reſpective Chambers the 29th of laſt Month; but no Cauſes were heard, nor was any publick Buſineſs done, on Account of the Abſence of the Advocates, who were not ſummoned to attend; ſo that the Chambers ſoon broke up, and in all Probability will not meet again, 'til forced to it by freſh Orders from the King. —For the Sake of ſuch as may not be well acquainted with the Conſtitution of the Parliament of Paris, it is proper to obſerve here, that it is divided into ſeveral Chambers or Courts, in which their Counſellors ſit as Judges, and their Advocates act in the ſame Capacity as our Counſellors.

Dublin, Oct. 27. Laſt Monday Morning died in Mary's Lane, aged 120, Suſannah Machavoy, a Woman who uſed to aſk Charity. It is remarkable, that, notwithſtanding her great Age, ſhe could ſee to read without Spectacles, and had her Senſes to the laſt. There were found upwards of 150*l.* carefully ſewed up in different Parts of her Bed, and the ſame was equally divided among her Relations.

A Meditation or Contemplation, by an unſucceſsful Adventurer in the LOTTERY.

Why frets my Soul becauſe of a Blank! or why doth it lament at having miſſed of a Prize? Suppoſe I had got one of the Ten Thouſands, what then?—why then, ſlap daſh down at a blow, with the whole Catalogue of my Wants. But ſoft—would not the Deſtruction of thoſe Wants be the Generation of Others? and the Deſtruction of theſe the Generation of More? and ſo on?—As ſure as a Gun.—At this Rate, what would be gained by a Ten Thouſand Pound Prize?—Nothing.—Or what have I loſt by a Blank? —Nothing at all.—Why then a Blank is as good as a Ten Thouſand Pound Prize—Who then in their Wits can doubt it? and conſequently better than an Inferior Prize.—As plain as a Pike Staff. Then what are they who rejoice at a Prize?—Prize Fools. And what are they who grieve at a Blank—Blank Fools.——Sing tan tara-ra-ra, Fools all, Fools all, &c.

To Africk ſhall a ſecond Squadron bend?

Can theſe Things be, yet Albion's Thunder ſleep?

Nov. 23. Private Letters from Paris intimate, that their Coffee Houſe Politicians laugh in their Sleeve at the tedious Conferences about L—m—ts in Am—r—a, and obſerve that Frenchmen, notwithſtanding all their Vivacity, can check their natural Fire when they pleaſe, and creep with as ſlow a Pace as the Spaniards.

Nov. 25 It is the Opinion of ſome Politicians, that if we would put an effectual Stop to the Depredations of the Spaniſh Guarda de la Coſtas in the Weſt-Indies, we ſhould follow the Example of the Dutch, who make no Ceremony with thoſe commiſſioned Pirates, but ſink or take them, when they preſume to ſearch or viſit them. But thoſe Politicians don't ſeem to have conſider'd, that there is a wide Difference between the Circumſtances of England and Holland. The latter is in no Danger of ſeeing France interfere in a Quarrel between her and Spain: But Britain has many Precautions to take beſides, and ought by all Means to keep out of Broils, at leaſt 'til ſhe can find Expedients to get fairly out of Debt, and learn to conduct French and Spaniſh Wars better than ſhe did the laſt.

Nov. 29. It is ſaid a Diſcourſe will very ſoon appear, to prove the Neceſſity of reducing the publick Debts, grounded on a fine and inconteſtible Remark of the Lord Chancellor Bacon, contained in the following Words. Uſury bringeth the Treaſure of a Realm or State into few Hands; for an Uſurer being at Certainties, and others at Uncertainties, at the End of the Game, moſt of the Money will be in the Box.

Laſt Wedneſday 497,700 Yards of Iriſh Linnen were entered at the Cuſtom-Houſe, which was brought over in the Succeſs, Dunn, from Dublin

Yeſterday was entered at the Cuſtom-Houſe for Importation from Holland, 11,276 Ells of Holland, and from Ireland 499,180 Yards of Linnen; a great Proof of the Excellency and Advantage of the Iriſh Linnen Manufactory.

Some private Advices from Paris inſinuate, that the famous Mr. de la Bourdenaye has ſet up a Claim upon the French Eaſt India Company for Six Millions of Livres; and that, in order to compromiſe, the Company have offered him a Million and a Half, and the Command of all their Naval Force in the Indies.

Some Merchants at Dantzick lately received Letters from Perſia with an Account that the Troubles in that Empire are at laſt appeaſed, that the preſent Shah, who deſcended on the Mother's Side from their ancient Emperors, had invited the European Factors back to Iſpahan, with full Aſſurance, that their Goods had been preſerved, which, however, was look'd upon only as a Pretence to get them thither; but on their Arrival they were agreeably ſurprized to find every Thing as they left it, and as ſoon as they had taken Poſſeſſion of their Houſes, the Shah's Guards were withdrawn.

Extract of a Letter from Weſt-Jerſey, Sept. 1. 1751.

SIR,

"The French ſince the laſt Peace, have been ſo much encroaching on the Trade and Territories of our Britiſh Northern Colonies, that we are anxious to hear of the Succeſs of our Negociations at Paris. As I have had ſome Opportunity, I have done all in my Power that our Commiſſaries be well informed, as I have been particularly applied to for that Purpoſe. I am fully perſuaded that the Northern Colonies are of much greater Conſequence to the Naval Force and Trade of Great Britain, than the Sugar Iſlands, though it ſeems that there has been much Pains taken to make it appear otherwiſe.

There is no Compariſon in the Quantity of the Engliſh Manufactures, that are annually conſumed in the Northern Colonies, and in the Sugar Iſlands. Beſides, the Weſt India Trade is a perpetual Deſtruction of Seamen, whereas the Northern Colony Trade, and the Fiſhery eſpecially, is a continued Nurſery for their Increaſe; and therefore it is my humble Opinion, that an excluſive Fiſhery alone, would be of more Benefit to the Nation than all the Sugar Iſlands put together; for whatever Nation has the greateſt Naval Force will always command the Trade. This is evident from the Caſe of Spain, which has decayed in its Trade and Naval Force, ever ſince their Settlement of their numerous Southern Colonies. The French were made very ſenſible in the laſt War, of the Naval Force of the Northern Colonies, though it had no other Support but that of private Adventurers. The French think our Miniſtry will ſuffer a thouſand little Injuries at a Diſtance, rather than go into another War, for they reap more Advantages by a Peace, which gives them freſh Opportunities to make Encroachments, in order to lay Foundations to carry on the next War more to their Intereſt. I have heard it reported, that Printing-Preſſes are by all Means to be diſcouraged in our Colonies; I am amazed at it; I wiſh it may not be true. That the Colonies ought to be kept in Ignorance, is not the juſt Sentiment of a Mother Country towards its Children, but of a Maſter Country towards its Servants. Love us, encourage and educate us as Children, and we ſhall always give you the Honour, Love and Obedience, that is due to a Parent. But if you begin to conſider us meerly as your Tenants, your Labourers, or or your Slaves, we muſt of Courſe by Degrees loſe all true Reſpect and Affection for you. I am, dear SIR,

Your moſt humble Servant,

PUBLICUS."

December 7. Since the three Branches of the L——re have recently acknowledged that the Nation is indeed very wicked, i. e. very irreligious, extremely idle, much addicted to Gaming, and ſuperlatively extravagant, we preſume it cannot be taken ill by any, if we give our Readers a few Lines of a Project for the Advancement of Religion, wrote by the late Dean of St. Patrick's.

"It is in the Power of the Prince (ſays that great Genius) to make Piety and Virtue become the Faſhion of the Age, if at the ſame Time he would make them neceſſary Qualifications for Favour and Preferment."

But the bare Example of Princes not being ſufficient to ſtem the Torrent of Vice, when the Age is very corrupt (inſtanced in Queen Anne, whoſe Virtues made none about her better) Dr. Swift then obſerves, that "Princes muſt therefore ſupply this Defect by a vigorous Exerciſe of that Authority which the Law has left them, by making it every Man's Intereſt and Honour to cultivate Religion and Virtue; by rendering Vice a Diſgrace, and the certain Ruin to Preferment or Pretenſions: All which they ſhould firſt attempt in their own Courts and Families. For Inſtance, might not the Queen's Domeſticks of the middle and lower Sort be obliged, upon Penalty of Suſpenſion or Loſs of their Employments, to a conſtant weekly Attendance on the Service of the Church, and a decent Behaviour in it; to receive the Sacrament four Times a Year; to avoid Swearing and irreligious prophane Diſcourſe; and to the Appearance, at leaſt, of Temperance and Chaſtity."

Every Government that would effectually ſuppreſs Idleneſs, ſhould in the firſt Place look to thoſe who are more immediately under its own Inſpection and Command. In a Nation groaning under an enormous Load of Debts and Taxes, it is ſomewhat prepoſterous, that ſo many Thouſands ſhould have ſuch large Salaries and Perquiſites, ſome for only two or three Hours, ſome ten, others twenty, or at moſt thirty Hours Attendance in a Week: For ſetting aſide the Conſideration of bad OEconomy in the Caſe, it is to be noted, that few Men have Senſe or Virtue enough to employ their Time well. If you give them Fulneſs of Bread, with Abundance of Idleneſs, the Conſequence is, that many of them will be too apt to ruſh into evil Courſes, and by their Example draw others into the ſame ruinous Way of Living; to ſupport which, the Publick muſt be robbed, on the Highway, or otherwiſe.

The Father of the People having been graciouſly pleaſed to recommend to the Grand Council of the Nation the making ſome effectual Proviſions to ſtop the Progreſs of Irreligion, Gaming, Idleneſs and Extravagance, it is the Duty of every Subject to ſecond thoſe laudable and pious Intentions to the beſt of his Power.

Dec. 9. Laſt Week was enter'd at the Cuſtom-Houſe, from on board the Charming Martha, Capt. Leſlie, 496 Pound Weight of raw Silk, the Growth of Georgia, under the Teſtimonials required by the late Act of Parliament for encouraging the Growth and Culture of Silk, in his Majeſty's Dominions in America; which raw Silk, by the ſaid Act, was imported Duty free.

Dec. 12. We hear from Wigton in Cumberland, that a young Woman in the Holme, near that Place, of conſiderable Fortune, has been ſo fortunate as to get two Huſbands in one Week. She was privately married to her firſt Huſband at Allonby Chapel, and two Days after to her ſecond Huſband at the Holme Church: Which ſecond Marriage, as it was not kept a Secret, preſently reach'd the Ears of the firſt Huſband, who liv'd in the ſame Pariſh, who, whilſt the new married Couple were regaling themſelves, broke in upon them to lay Claim to his Wife, in right of the prior Marriage, which greatly chagrin'd the ſecond Huſband to find himſelf ſo deluded. But, however, after the Prieſts were examined, and both Marriages being fairly proved, the Diſpute was not who ſhould have her, but who ſhould get quit of her, as the Marriage was not conſummated by any Party; yet as it was the general Opinion that the Right would be in the firſt married Huſband, the Marriage has been ſince conſummated, and the ſecond Huſband is contenting himſelf with finding out Means of Conſolation, &c. to qualify himſelf for another Wife.

YORK-TOWN, March 2.

On Wedneſday laſt a Maryland Officer, aſſiſted by ſeveral Men, came to the Houſe of Mr. Martin Kitzmiller, of this County, to arreſt him, at the Suit of Mr. Diggs, when a Scuffle enſued; Mr. Kitzmiller called to his Son, in a Smith's Shop a little Way off, for Aſſiſtance; the young Man ſnatcht up a Gun, loaded with ſmall Shot to ſhoot at Crows, and ran to help his Father, when ſome of the Officer's Men attempting to take the Gun out of his Hands, it went off, and ſhot the above Mr. Diggs's Son in the back Part of his Body, under the ſhort Ribs, who died thereof in leſs than three Hours after. Young Jacob Kitzmiller delivered himſelf up Priſoner here the next Day. The Verdict of the Coroner's Inqueſt is not yet come to our Knowledge.

And laſt Saturday Night Mr. Chriſtian Groll's Shop was broke open, and Three Hundred Pounds worth of Goods taken and carried off. They are in Search of the Robbers, about the Country; and a Reward of 50 l. has been offered for the Apprehending them with the Goods.

PHILADELPHIA, March 17.

Extract of a Letter from Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, dated January 12. 1752.

"The Cherokees that were laſt in Town at the Treaty, committed ſome Robberies, attempted to raviſh ſeveral Women, and were otherwiſe very inſolent to the Inhabitants in our Back Settlements, on their Return Home, tho' they had made a ſtrict League with us. They were Way-laid, and attacked by a Party of the Creek Nation, now at War with them, who killed thirty-two, of about eighty or ninety that went from this Place."

We hear from Whitemarſh, that on Saturday laſt, in the Night, the Houſe of Mr. Peter Robeſon there took Fire, and burnt with ſuch Violence, that it was quite conſumed, with every Thing in it; and that his Family with Difficulty ſav'd their Lives.

WHereas by reaſon of the ſeverity of the ſeaſon, and fluctuating condition the ice was in, it was impracticable either to paſs the river Delaware, to the place appointed for drawing the TRENTON LOTTERY on the Pennſylvania ſide, or to get an account of the tickets ſold, remitted to the managers, at the time fixed for drawing the lottery, in ſo particular a manner as was neceſſary, to enable them to proceed in the execution of that deſign; tho' they have had general intelligence of a very ſucceſsful ſale, for which they are obliged to the publick. The managers therefore find themſelves under a neceſſity to delay the drawing for ſome ſmall ſpace of time, till they can with convenience get the tickets returned, and make the neceſſary preparations; and hereby deſire all gentlemen who have done them the favour to ſell tickets, to ſend in an account of what tickets they have ſold, and give back the tickets remaining in their hands undiſpoſed of by the twentieth day of April, that they may do juſtice to the purchaſers by drawing the ſame; they are determin'd to begin on the twenty-ſeventh of ſaid month, and continue the ſame from that time till finiſh'd, at the houſe of Nathaniel Parker, in Bucks county, being the ferry-houſe from the Pennſylvania ſide over to Trenton.
